

A decorative geometric pattern consisting of a central eight-pointed star with curved points. The star is formed by overlapping triangles and is surrounded by four curved, leaf-like shapes pointing towards the corners. The entire design is enclosed within a square frame with inward-curving sides.

Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good. 1Peter 2:2-3